... home is dark, blinds closed...
... dirty no where to sit
... TV is too loud ...phone always rings

Drive by Responses to...

- ... caregivers do not have realistic expectations
- ... they expect too much
- ... not enough

Drive by Responses to...

- ... there are no toys
- ... no materials...
- ... no routines

Drive by Responses to...

- ... they always just sit in the living room with me.
- ... They watch me ... don't want me in any other room
- ... don't offer any ideas, routines

Drive by Responses to...

- ... I need to do "hands on" to explain what they need to do
- ... I can't describe it to someone else unless I'm doing it

Drive by Responses to...

... They say “yes” to everything I suggest but they don’t do anything when I’m not there
... No matter how many different things I tell them to do, they don’t seem to ever do anything! Why keep trying???

Drive by Responses to...

... The physician said the child needs PT (or OT or ST) 2x a week and it’s my responsibility to fill the prescription the way the doctor says.

Drive by Responses to...

- ... The child care staff doesn't want me in their way.
- ... I distract the other kids so I just leave and work with the child by myself.

Drive by Responses to...

- ...I don't see the parents when I work with the kids at child care..
- ... Why is this better than working in a clinic?

Drive by Responses to. . . .

- ... The house is dark and dirty
- ... Bugs, dogs, cats, smoke, it's scary
- ... There are new people every week
- ... How is this the right way for service
