Living Your Vision

All children learn during everyday activities and routines with their caregivers.

- Provide information and support
- Offer choices of routines to match family
- Monitor programs
- Respect family values
- Use everyday places & toys
- Problem solve with family and practice together

FACTICS is a joint project of Kansas University Affiliated Program and Florida State University